BERTONERI

More than two centuries ago, in the hills above Tuscany, Giovanni Bertoneri crafted his first marble fireplace using stone from the same quarries that supplied Michelangelo. From that moment, the Bertoneri name became a symbol of timeless elegance and exceptional craftsmanship.

Marble is nature's masterpiece—formed over millennia from compressed minerals and grains, creating unique patterns and colors. This natural beauty made marble the material of choice for classical sculptors and architects, and today it remains a hallmark of sophistication and refined taste.

Our Antique Collection celebrates this heritage with two distinct styles: classic fireplaces inspired by traditional European design, evoking grandeur and elegance, and modern fireplaces with sleek, minimalist lines that bring marble's natural beauty into contemporary spaces. Each piece is crafted from authentic marble in luxurious finishes such as Honed Statuary White, Polished Lilac, Nero Marquina, and Calacatta Viola. Whether you prefer the grace of tradition or the clean lines of modern design, the Antique Collection offers a fireplace that transforms your home into a masterpiece.
